Tauranga Arts and Culture Strategy	Parewhati Taikato – apology Dawn Hutcheeson –apology Ngaronoa Gardiner – introduction and overview to the group Mary Stewart - Presented to the forum Tauranga Arts and Culture Strategy Our Vision – is for a vibrant Tauranga City and Western Bay of Plenty region, where our shared history with tangata whenua is celebrated, our creative industries thrive and prosper, and our diverse community is enriched by arts and cultural experiences - everyday, for everyone. Our Belief – For arts and culture to thrive as an economic driver, we need government and public support, not just funding, which can come from a number of sources. To achieve our vision, we need to see the creative sector acknowledged in a public policy, infrastructure considerations and in education. We need to encourage people to pursue their creative potential and for them to engage in art and culture appreciation and activities for societal and economic benefit. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Looking to review and revise the current art policy • Create annual calendar of Maori events

Kia Tu Pakari ai Tatou

	Draft PDF Tauranga Arts and Culture Strategy available on request Key discussion points: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Feedback given on document language this will be driven by Manu Whenua• Public arts policy currently in place aiming to mandate document with the Tauranga City Council• Agreement the Strategy is important• Noted the vision is not clear needs to be more to the point. Would like to see more Maori art out in the community• No mission statements but 3-year timeframe.• Need some real Maori objectives in place, staged outcomes• Manu Whenua – identify who are the up and coming artists, lets support them. Suggestion to bring the exhibitions to the Maraes. Mary noted her attendance today is to communicate and receive feedback. Mary noted she would like endorsement from the Combined Tangata Whenua forum showing support before going to the council. After discussion and based on this presentation on strategy the Forum noted they can't endorse however from the arts perspective we support the vision. 2018 The Forum would like further update. Shad suggested in 6 months. Approx. March/April
Iwi Leaders Forum – Te Mana o Te Wai	Tina Porou - apology Naomi Simmonds presented Te Mana o te Wai The Fresh Water ILG: Current Priorities An allocation framework that has Te Mana o te Wai at its heart. Enabling access to water for iwi/hapu (including for drinking water and sustainable economic development). Please click on below link to review full presentation:
